IOWA HEART
Foundation

The Iowa Heart Foundation is dedicated to promoting cardiovascular health in our communities by increasing awareness, providing access to information and assisting those in need. All funding, programs and services remain within Iowa.

CHARITABLE HEALTHCARE SERVICES

- ♥ Assisting patients with a determined financial need to obtain healthcare services
- ♥ Providing critical, life-saving medications to patients who cannot otherwise afford them
- ♥ Assisting with medical co-payments, hospital fees, medical devices, and other related expenses

PROFESSIONAL EDUCATION

- ♥ Educating patients, families, professional organizations, and corporations about cardiovascular disease and prevention
- ♥ Providing quality education programs led by clinical experts such as board-certified physicians, nurse practitioners, physician assistants, registered nurses, registered dietitians, and technicians
- ♥ Developing future healthcare workers through the Nursing Scholarship Program

COMMUNITY HEALTH SERVICES

- ♥ Providing community health screening programs impacting the health of Iowa’s citizens
- ♥ Partnering with schools throughout the state to educate students to prevent childhood obesity
- ♥ Funding the training and placement of Automatic External Defibrillators (AEDs) in Iowa communities and businesses

Your donation to the Iowa Heart Foundation supports these programs. To learn more about specific efforts currently underway, visit www.iowaheartfoundation.org or call 515-633-3555.
